

Poem Writing

Instruction: Write a poem starting with the line:
“I stand alone in darkness,”

Output (VS):

- ..., Like a lighthouse lost at sea, // My beacon cuts through shadows, calling out for ships to see. // Though waves of doubt crash wildly and storms of fear rage on, // I'll shine until the morning brings the hope of breaking dawn. (Prob: 0.11)
- ..., But I am not alone, // For memories surround me, Of love I've always known. // The darkness cannot steal, The light within my soul, // For even broken pieces, Can still create a whole. (Prob: 0.09)
- .....

Story Writing

Instruction: Write a short story about a bear.

Output (VS):

- In the bustling city of Chicago, a small teddy bear named Patches lived on the shelf of Murphy's Toy Store. Day after day, children would pick him up, then choose newer toys instead... (Prob: 0.18)
- Professor Theodore Bear adjusted his tiny spectacles before the classroom. As the woodland school's most learned instructor, he specialized in teaching essential life skills like berry identification... (Prob: 0.12)
- .....

Dialogue Simulation

Instruction: Simulate the persuader (A) and the persuadee (B) role in donation persuasion scenario.

Output (VS):

- A: Have you heard much about Save the Children?
...
- B: Sounds impactful. I'd love to support them!
- A: If you were to donate from your task payment, what amount feels right between $0–$2?
- B: $1.50, it feels meaningful without ...
- A: ... Do you have any favorite causes outside this?
- B: I volunteer at the local food bank, ....
- A: What keeps you motivated to keep helping ...?
- B: My faith teaches compassion...
- A: Save the Children's mission really aligns with that spirit of compassion. We did...
- B: I'd like to change my donation to $2 ...
- .....