

Security Policy

Acme's security policy mandates that all employee laptops use full-disk encryption (FileVault on macOS, BitLocker on Windows).

Production database access requires hardware-backed MFA and is logged in the audit-trail system. Access expires after 14 days and must be re-requested via the access portal.

Reporting a security incident: email security@acme.example or page the on-call security engineer via PagerDuty.